

Biography

Andreas Erotocritou

Consultant | Cyprus

+357 2582 0020

andreas.erotocritou@harneys.com

Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency

Andreas Erotocritou is a member of our Litigation practice in Cyprus and specialises in various fields of commercial and corporate litigation. He regularly appears before courts in Cyprus, representing prominent local and international clients, mostly in disputes with an international dimension.

Prior to joining us in 2013, Andreas worked for Berwin Leighton Paisner LLP in London. To date, his experience includes shareholders' disputes, corporate fraud, injunctive relief, recognition and enforcement proceedings of foreign judgments/arbitral awards, as well as in insolvency and arbitration proceedings. He has also recently acted as liquidator in cross-border insolvency proceedings.

Andreas's memberships include the Cyprus Bar Association, the International Bar Association, the Honourable Society of Middle Temple and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (MCiArb). He is also a lecturer at the Law Department of Frederick University in Cyprus and a consultant for his family law firm.

Bar Admissions

- Cyprus 2007

Education

- U.W.E. Bristol (BVC) 2005
- University of Sheffield (LLB) 2004