Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency, Restructuring

Carmen Li is a member of our Litigation, Insolvency, and Restructuring practice group in the Hong Kong office. She specialises in commercial and investment disputes, shareholder and boardroom disputes, insolvency matters and asset preservation and enforcement.

Prior to joining Harneys in 2021, Carmen worked in international law firms in Hong Kong and had a broad practice in commercial, investment and contractual claims, shareholder and boardroom disputes, insolvency matters and corporate and regulatory investigations.

Carmen has extensive experience in handling multi-jurisdictional disputes. She regularly advises listed and private companies, directors and shareholders of companies and high-net-worth individuals on cross-border matters and has represented clients in court and international arbitration proceedings.

Carmen is fluent in Mandarin and Cantonese.
