Kate Mullan joined us in 2018 and manages our marketing team. Kate is based in our BVI office and is responsible for developing and implementing the firm's global brand and communication strategy.

Kate has an extensive background in marketing and public relations, with experience across both international and boutique agencies. Prior to joining us, she worked for a full service agency, overseeing client strategy and media relations.

Kate is a member of the firm's CSR committee and is also involved in the local community, volunteering with Virgin Islands Search and Rescue, as well as being on their board of directors as a public relations advisor.
