Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency, Listco disputes

Natalie Lee is a member of the Dispute Resolution team in Hong Kong and joined our Shanghai team on secondment in August 2022. She specialises in complex cross-border shareholder/director disputes for private and listed companies incorporated in the British Virgin Islands and the Cayman Islands.

Natalie's clientele ranges from high net-worth individuals to large publically listed companies and high-value investment funds. In particular, she has represented PRC household names, such as Perfect World, Mindray, Qihoo 360, Bona Films, Trina Solar, in dissenting shareholder proceedings in the Cayman Islands.

She joined Harneys in 2015, and in addition to general commercial litigation matters, Natalie regularly advises debtors, creditors, shareholders, and insolvency practitioners in winding-up proceedings.

Natalie is experienced with the procedural and practical realities of the British Virgin Islands and Cayman Islands courts after completing secondments there, including advising a team of experts and Queen's Counsel at trial in the Cayman Islands.
