Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency

Richard is an associate in our Litigation, Insolvency, and Restructuring practice group, based in the British Virgin Islands. His practice focusses on commercial and shareholder disputes and insolvency matters.

Before being called to the Bar, Richard worked as a paralegal in our team where he gained significant exposure to a broad spectrum of commercial disputes and insolvency work.

Prior to that, he worked as a case officer with the Office of the Trustee in Bankruptcy in Jamaica administering bankrupt estates and insolvent companies and as a litigation paralegal in the Compliance team with the Registrar of Companies.

While studying for the Bar, Richard gained experience as an advocate working for the Free Representation Unit representing clients before the social security and employment tribunals.
