Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency, Restructuring

Ben Hobden is a partner in our Litigation, Insolvency, and Restructuring group in the Cayman Islands.

Having practised in the Cayman Islands for over a decade, Ben regularly acts for insolvency practitioners, debtors, and creditors in insolvency and restructuring situations, with an enviable track record of acting on many of the largest restructurings in the Cayman Islands.

Ben is an expert in restructuring by way of scheme of arrangement, activist shareholder litigation (including those under s.238 of the Companies Act), insurance disputes, all forms of interim relief and general corporate disputes, and advises financial institutions, directors, and corporates in a wide range of commercial litigation matters.

He is a highly experienced advocate, having appeared before the Grand Court and Court of Appeal on numerous occasions, and has developed a reputation amongst his clients for providing clear, concise, and straightforward advice.

Ben is a committee member of the Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association's Legal and Regulatory Committee.
