Expertise

Litigation and Insolvency, Restructuring

Gabrielle is a member of our Litigation, Restructuring and Insolvency team in Hong Kong. Gabrielle has a broad range of commercial disputes experience, with a focus on contentious and non-contentious cross-border restructuring and insolvency matters. She has advised Asia-based clients such as financial institutions, multinational corporations and insolvency practitioners on the appointment of liquidators and provisional liquidators and in parallel schemes of arrangement.

Gabrielle previously worked for a premier US law firm with a focus on the cross-border enforcement of multi-million dollar judgments and arbitration awards. She has also represented clients in high profile international government investigations.

Gabrielle is qualified as a solicitor of Hong Kong.
