Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency

Paul Goss is a member of the Litigation & Insolvency team in our London office. He specialises in multi-jurisdictional, contentious and non-contentious restructuring and insolvency work, as well as international disputes and enforcement of rights and information gathering.

Paul advises on all formal appointments of insolvency officeholders in the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands and advises secured and unsecured creditors, debtors, private equity and hedge funds, shareholders, investors and other stakeholders in various insolvency, restructuring and litigation related matters.

He has significant experience in cross-border restructuring and litigation matters, having worked on numerous high-profile multi-jurisdictional restructurings and disputes involving Africa, the Middle East, South America, South East Asia (with a specific emphasis on PRC), India, Kazakhstan, Russia, and Ukraine across multiple sectors including crypto, oil and gas, mining, renewable energy, shipping and agriculture.

Paul has also contributed to several publications, including International Corporate Rescue and Global Restructuring Review. Paul is also a member of the Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association (Cayman) Limited and INSOL International.

Prior to joining Harneys in 2023, Paul worked at another major offshore law firm in Hong Kong, London, and the Cayman Islands.
